Contractor

Top architects and interior designers rely on Fort Hill Construction, which has been building and remodeling homes in Beverly Hills, Bel-Air and Malibu for 25 years. They have a rep for being gasp! on time and gulp!—within budget. (We didn't say cheap.) They won't drop names, but we've heard Spielberg, Geffen and Streisand have all used the firm's services. 8118 Hollywood Blvd., 323-656-7425.

Fort Hill Construction

"Best Contractor"

Fort Hill Construction

vide product and warehouse and installation services for all of Southern California.

With the technical services and project management resources in place, Westfall is dedicated to supporting the design community. Evidence of their commitment to exceed clients' expectations is found in their ISO 9001 certification, the only furniture dealership in Southern California to be so certified. This allows Westfall to measure and track quality goals and audit performance.

What makes them unique is their commitment to art through the Westfall Art division and their patronage of legendary Southern California artist Billy Al Bengstrom. Ongoing participation in many art oriented and philanthropic activities also sets Westfall Interior Systems apart and contributes to their success.

Developer

Sunrise Company

This Calibre Award winner is a major homebuilder in the resort, recreation and community development field. William Bone, founder and CEO, selects the creme of design professionals, architects and craftsmen to create outstanding residential golf course-orientated communities. Their reputation as "builder of American's finest country club communities" is based on longevity, financial strength, community leadership, customer service, qualified staff, association with brand-name manufacturers, and quality construction.

Founded in 1963, Sunrise Company has built over 10,000 homes in Southern California, San Jose, Las Vegas, Scottsdale and Mexico. A member of the California Building Industry Association Hall of Fame, Mr. Bone has a long history of active involvement in numerous community-oriented associations and foundations. This personal commitment to service has contributed to the company's success.

Real Estate Attorney

Pillsbury Madison & Sutro LLP

This new category was created to recognize the contribution of this team member, responsible for writing into landlord and tenant legal documents (leases) the responsibility of the interior designer/architect. PM&S is a firm of more than 550 attorneys practicing in over 30 different specialty areas. Founded in 1874 in San Francisco, the firm now has offices in seven California cities, New York, Washington DC, Hong Kong and Tokyo.

Pillsbury's Real Estate Group has more than fifty attorneys practicing in all areas of real estate law in each of the firm's national offices, including San Francisco, Sacramento, Menlo Park, Los Angeles, Costa Mesa, San Diego and New York. The Group's practice covers the full range of legal issues affecting land use and development, and it has extensive experience in negotiating and documenting transactions with local government and redevelopment agencies. Group members also represent property owners threatened with potential eminent domain proceedings, and has one of the largest environmental counseling groups in the country.

General Contractor

Fort Hill Construction

Started as a family business in 1971 on the East Coast, Fort Hill continues its tradition of fine craftsmanship and a personal approach to each project. Headquartered in Los Angeles, the firm continues to do business in Boston and New York as well. While retaining the atmosphere of a family business, extended into the second generation, Fort Hill's commitment to quality, integrity and personal service continues to be overseen by the original partners. In order to give each project the full personal attention it deserves, company policy limits the project load to a maximum of
